

YOUR SINGLE SOURCE FOR NATIONWIDE SERVICE

National Accounts Program

To effectively protect people and property, your systems need expert, consistent service. Companies with a variety of systems in multiple locations require coordinated and reliable service. SimplexGrinnell, a leading provider of protection systems and services, offers a National Accounts Program that is second to none. We offer customers the convenience of a single-service source – together with the capability to provide nationwide coverage.

Regardless of where your facilities are located or the manufacturer of your system, our National Accounts Program gives you access to superior service from SimplexGrinnell offices throughout the United States and Canada. Each office offers the rapid response and comprehensive knowledge you expect from SimplexGrinnell. And if your business changes, grows or relocates, SimplexGrinnell has the extensive resources necessary to provide continued management of all of your protection needs.

With the SimplexGrinnell National Accounts Program you can rely on:

- a single point of contact coordinating all of your multi-location service needs.
- consistency and quality assurance from our network of company-owned offices.
- customization of service plans to meet your multi-location requirements.
- emergency service 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.
- comprehensive documentation to ensure compliance with all building and fire code requirements.
- regularly scheduled testing and maintenance, including smoke detector sensitivity testing and cleaning; sprinkler systems inspection; and testing of control panel functions, battery backup, initiating devices and audiovisual units.
- complete central monitoring services as well as security, access control, sound and communications and nurse call.
- complete, quick-access parts inventory available from each of our district offices, with rapid response from service vehicles that stock the essential spare parts needed for most repairs.

Let SimplexGrinnell be your single source for life-safety system services. We'll keep you a step ahead of any emergency.
